

Addus HomeCare Awarded Contract Renewal in Riverside County, California

June 16, 2011 at 8:33 AM EDT

PALATINE, Ill., June 16, 2011 /PRNewswire via COMTEX/ --

Addus HomeCare Corporation (Nasdaq: ADUS), a comprehensive provider of home-based social and medical services, announced today that it was awarded a contract renewal to be the agency provider of home-based personal care through Riverside County's In-Home Supportive Services (IHSS) program.

Addus was the successful bidder in a competitive bidding process for the contract, which will be funded through a combination of state, federal and county sources. The contract runs from July 1, 2011 to June 30, 2012, with two additional option years. Valued at $11.5 million annually, the award represents Addus' largest sole-sourced contract. Addus is a full-service provider in Riverside County, with personal care, home health, commercial and private care.

Mark Heaney, President and Chief Executive Officer of Addus HomeCare, said, "We are pleased to extend our 15+ year relationship with Riverside County, as we believe the contract renewal reflects the County's confidence in our continued ability to provide consumers with the highest quality care.

In a challenging budgetary environment, we are encouraged that the federal, state and local governments continue to recognize the benefits of in-home care as one of the most cost-effective solutions to caring for our aging population."
