

Addus HomeCare Appoints Michael Earley to Board of Directors

April 1, 2014 at 5:57 PM EDT

PALATINE, Ill., April 1, 2014 /PRNewswire/ -- Addus HomeCare Corporation (Nasdaq: ADUS), a comprehensive provider of home and community based services, which are primarily social in nature and provided in the home, and focused on the dual eligible population, today announced that Michael Earley has been appointed to its Board of Directors. Mr. Earley will serve on the Audit Committee.

Mark Heaney, President and Chief Executive Officer of Addus HomeCare, stated, "Given Michael's leadership experience in business, finance and health care operations, and especially given his experience in managed care while leading Metropolitan Health Networks, we feel very fortunate to have Michael joining our board."

Mr. Earley is the immediate past Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Metropolitan Health Networks, Inc. where he served from early 2003 until February 2013. The company was acquired by Humana, Inc. in December 2012 for approximately $850 million. He is currently advising healthcare services and other businesses through a consulting company, Pelican Advisors, LLC.

Mr. Earley has been an advisor to public and privately owned companies, acting in a variety of management roles since 1997. From 1986 to 1997, he served in a number of senior management roles, including CEO, CFO and Corporate Development Officer, for Intermark, Inc. and Triton Group Ltd., both publicly traded diversified holding companies. He was Chief Executive Officer of Collins Associates, an institutional money management firm, from January 2000 through December 2002. He has also served as a director for several public companies throughout his career. Mr. Earley received undergraduate degrees in Accounting and Business Administration from the University of San Diego. From 1978 to 1983, he was an audit and tax staff member of Ernst & Young.
