

Addus HomeCare Announces the Addition of Laurie Manning as Chief Human Resource Officer

July 31, 2017 at 11:30 AM EDT

FRISCO, Texas, July 31, 2017 /PRNewswire/ -- Addus HomeCare Corporation (NASDAQ: ADUS), a provider of comprehensive home care services, today announced the hiring of Laurie Manning as the Company's Executive Vice President, Chief Human Resource Officer, effective August 14, 2017. Ms. Manning brings over 25 years of experience working with dispersed healthcare workforces to Addus. Previously, she was the Vice President, Human Resources for Dallas-based Epic Health Services, which provides home health services for medically fragile children and adults in 21 states and which she joined in 2012. Previously, she served at Humana for two years as Human Capital Leader, Human Resources and 17 years with Concentra, Inc., a provider of a range of healthcare services through over 300 medical center locations in 40 states and 140 onsite medical facilities, for whom Ms. Manning most recently served for five years as Vice President, Human Resources, East Region.

Dirk Allison, President and Chief Executive Officer of Addus, remarked, "Laurie Manning has created an outstanding record throughout her successful career in human resources in the healthcare services industry, and we are very pleased to announce that she is joining our team at Addus. We have every confidence that Laurie's expertise and drive will be critical assets in enabling Addus to take best advantage of the growth opportunities before us."

Ms. Manning will replace Brenda Belger, who is retiring from the position. Mr. Allison continued, "We also want to extend our heartfelt thanks to Brenda Belger for handling this position over the past year, during a critical time of transition for the Company. Since I worked with Brenda previously, I knew exactly the qualities Brenda would bring to Addus when I asked her to come out of retirement to fill this role. We wish her the best and thank her for her great service in this role."
